DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4 and 6 - 16 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claim 4, the prior art does not teach or render obvious the total combination as claimed including a print quality inspection apparatus having the working position is inside the frame and the maintenance position is outside the frame.

With respect to claim 6, the prior art does not teach or render obvious the total combination as claimed including the print quality inspection apparatus wherein the support roller is rotatably disposed at an inspection means and said guide is a support rail for supporting said support roller and connecting between said working position and said maintenance position of said inspection means.

With respect to claim 11, the prior art does not teach or render obvious the total combination as claimed including a printing quality inspection apparatus comprising the moving means is a corrector moving means for moving the correcting means between a working position for correcting the position of the printed sheet-like object and the maintenance position, the working position being a position in which the correcting means is inside the frame and the maintenance position being a position in which the correcting means is outside the frame.

With respect to claim 12, the prior art does not teach or render obvious the total combination as claimed including a printing quality inspection apparatus having a corrector moving means includes a roller provided at a correcting means side and a guide provided inside of said frame for guiding the moving of said correcting means.

As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).
